Headline:
Sunshine and showers. Some heavy, potentially thundery, during the afternoon.

Today:
A fine, dry and bright start. Showers developing from mid-morning which turn heavier through the afternoon, bringing the risk of a few thunderstorms. Winds light to moderate from the south. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
Some sharp showers through the evening and overnight, mainly focused across the west, with most around eastern coastal fringes escaping dry. Southerly breezes. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Thursday:
A showery day with limited brighter spells. Plenty of heavier outbreaks expected, particularly through the afternoon with some thunderstorms developing. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
The very showery theme persists with outbreaks frequent, occasionally prolonged and heavy, bringing further risk of thunderstorms and potentially localised flooding.
